POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

ELECTION OF SENATORS AND INAUC URATION OF GOVERNORS.

James A. Beaver Inaugurated Governor of Pennsylvania-Governor Green Sworn in at Midnight-Illinois, Maine and Delaware Elect Senators-Other States. HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 19.—The inauguration gof James A. Beaver governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, took place at 12 o'clock in the house of representatives. There was a great crush of people to gain admittance to the legislative chamber, but none were allowed except in the galleries and those by ticket. The city is crowded with people from every town and county in the state. The National Guard turned out in larger numbers than had been anticipated, and the officers in charge were complimented for the fine display and the excellent marching of the troops as a body.

When the minute hand pointed to the hour of 12, the sergeant-at-arms announced the entrance of the distinguished party. First came Senator Reyburn, master of ceremonies, followed by the committee from the house of representatives, sergeant-at-arms of the senate. Then came Governor Pattison, Chief Justice Mercur, Governor-elect Beaver, Secretary of State Stenger, Secretary Affrica, Attorney General Cassidy, Senator Cameron, Judge Simonton, Adjutant General Guthrie, United States Senator J. D. Cameron, John Norris, W. U. Hensel, and members of Governor Pattison's staff. Next came Lieutenant Governor Black, escorting Lieutenant Governor-elect Davies, followed by the members of the senate.

At this moment the clamor of the crowd became so great that the presence of the sergeant-at-arms was necessary to quell the disturbance. Upon the entrance of the distinguished party the entire house arose en masse. Lieutenant Governor Black presided. Prayer was offered by Rev. George B. Stewart, pastor of the Market Square Presbyterian church. The certificate of election was then read, and chief justice of the supreme court, Hon. Ulysses Mercer, administered the oath of office. During the administration of the oath the new chief executive stood with pale face and uplifted hand.

His answer to the question of supporting the constitution was answered in loud and firm tone of voice. The oath of office was signed by the governor and the jurat of the chief justice attached thereto. The governor arose and delivered his inaugural address. When the applause which followed the conclusion of Governor Beaver's inaugural address had subsided, Lieutenant Governor Black declared the joint convention adjourned.

Governor Green Goes in at Mianight.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 19 -Governor-elect Green went before Justice' Beasley at midnight last night and took the oath of office as governor of New Jersey. He then went to the state house, where Governor M. Abbett, Allen McDermott, and a few other leading politicians were awaiting him. Gov. ernor Abbett extended him a hearty welcome and said: "Governor Green, I turn over to you the office and all there is in it, and wish you a pleasant term."

After a few moments' conversation, the little conference was terminated. This unusual mode of entering upon the duties of the office was adopted by Governor Green on account of the unsettled state of affairs. and the fact that there being no president of the senate. Mr. Baird, who was made speak. er by the Republicans, would have been Governor until noon, had not Mr. Green been previously sworn in.

Robert Taylor Inaugurated Governor. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 19.—Robert L Taylor was inaugurated as governor yesterday in the presence of a large audience.

NEW SENATORS ELECTED.

C. B. Farwell Elected in Illinois, Hale in Maine, and Gray in Delaware.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 19.-C. B. Farwell, of Chicago, was elected United States senstor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John A. Logan on the first ballot.

Mr. Farwell is a native of New York, being born at Painted Post, July 1, 18.3 His father was a farmer, and at the age of eleven years Mr. Farwell was sent to Elmira academy, where he remained until he was In 1838 he came to Illinois, locating where he followed farming and surveying for six years. In 1844 he removed to Chicago, and it is related of him that a ten dollar bill was all he possessed in the world. His first employment was in the county clerk's office at a salary of $8 per month and board, where he remained two years. Subsequently he was employed as teller in the banking house of George C. Smith & Co. He was elected twice to the office of county clerk, and as the close of his second term entered the dry goods house of his brother, J. W. Farwell, where he has remained ever since. In 1870 he was elected to congress over Long J a. Wentworth, and re-elected in 1872 and 1814 and declined a re-election in 1876, and wa again elected in 1800, and decuned a re-cletion in 1882.

Mr. Farwell was a conspicuous figure in congress, and was asways a member of the committee on banking and currency. He was on the conference committee that finally perfected the resumption act, and, also took an active part in the passage of the free banking act which broke down the monopoly in the National banking system.

Mr. Farwell is not a gifted speaker, but is noted for his sound, practical business sense, and his elevation to the United States senate is regarded as being well merited.

The Situation in Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 19.—Balloting for United States senator to succeed Mr. Van Wyck begins to-day. The situation may be summed up thus: The struggle is between "straight" Republicans, Van Wyck adherents and Democrats. There are 133 members of the legislature, and of these the straight Republicans claim that sixty-two have signed the caucus call. The Democrats have thirty-eight members, and the Van Wycks claim forty-two of the Republicans. The Van Wycks claim to control twenty-five Democratic votes, which would give Van Wyck a majority. There are some anti-Van Wyck Democrats, and the Republicans claim to be able to control enough of these after the first ballot to elect their nominee. They have not yet held a caucus, and it is understood that they will not do so until after the first ballot in the joint convention, when the strength of the candidates will be definitely

In Indiana. INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 19 .- The transcript in the injunction proceedings of Smith against Robertson, was filed in the supreme court this morning, and is now under argument. The house this morning, under a resolution offered by Mr. Gardner, Republican, declared that it would not recognize Senator Smith as presiding officer of the joint convention, and after reciting the facts as to Robertson's election added that he was the only man the house would recognize as posessing authority to preside over a joint session This action is interpreted to mean that the Republicans will hold a joint convention. which will be presided over by Robertson. and that if an attempt is made to enforce the orders of the court, a clash of authority will ensue between the legislators and judicia departments of the state government. To two houses will vote separately for senator

Senatorial Contest in Texas.

Mr. Hooper, of the Gould roads, and Mr. Waldo, poor commissioner, are here is the interest of Mr. Ireland. J. Y. Good attorney for the Msssouri Pacific, is on th ground working for Reagan. Walte Gresham, a prominent stockholder and d rector of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe road, is quietly pushing the claims of Maxey for re-election, and as a member of the house he will vote for him. Judge Bell, of this city, is also working in Maxey's interest. Mr. Gould is expected here to-day.

Dakota Legislature.

BISMARCK, Dakota, Jan. 19 .- Yesterday passed quietly. Many of the legislators living near here went home Saturday night and did not return until late in the day. I is expected that they will get down to hard work to-day or to-morrow. Governor Church is expected to arrive to-day, and inaugural exercises will probably take place the last of the week, if he receives his commission as he expects. A flood of bills, none of unusual importance, will be poured out in the house this week, Railroad and elevator companies will be paid most attention, and there is nothing in sight that promises redhot work.

Serious Explosion in a Newspaper Office. FINDLAY, O., Jan. 19.—Considerable excitement was caused at 10:30 this morning by a loud explosion, and it was found that the engine in the press-room of the Jeffer-sonian office had exploded, causing a great wreck to the building and contents. A young man named Charlie Brown was feeding papers on a press at the time, and A H. Balsley, the proprietor, was in the room. Brown was badly hurt in the breast and about the face, but his injuries are not of a dangerous character. The press-room is an entire wreck, windows having been blown out and walls torn loose. A form was pied up-stairs and havoc played generally. W are unable to state where the blame lies. The engine was an old one. The damage foots up over $1,000, it is believed. The paper had just gone to press with a special advertising edition.

KNIGHTS AND UNIONISTS AGAIN WARRING AT CHICAGO.

A Label Causes All the Trouble-Eight Hour Advocates Claim a Victory-Great Strike at a Montreal Foundry-In St. Louis-Other Labor Notes.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19 .- It is said that the war between the Knights of Labor and the Cigarmakers' union, which was one of the main causes of the Columbus conference, threatens to break out at this point, owing to a deterto break out at this point, owing to a determination of a number of the leading radicals Wheeling, W. Va.; David Oper, of Operlin, among the knights to force the fighting. It Pa.; Frank D. Bowman, of Lanark, Ill.; was only with great difficulty that the trouble Albert Bice, of Penfield, Itt.; M. H. Parks, was prevented from arising before, and being a cause of disruption in the labor element. The present movement is caused by the knights demanding the label of the order instead of the regular union label.

As the knights' scale of prices is considerably lower than that of the union, this means the train. a heavy reduction in the wages of cigarmakers, and they are protesting veh-meutly against the introduction of the knights' label into the Chicago trade. It does not seem, however, that the trouble can be much longer averted, as the knights who are leading the movement are determined to introduce their label regardless of the union. The effect will be to at once open up a wide breach between all the international unions and the knights.

Mr. Leggett Called the Turn.

St. Louis, Jan. 19. On Saturday last when John F. Leggett, president of the Leggett & Myers Tobacco company, learned of the strike at Lorillard's in Jersey City, N. J., he remarked: "Whenever there is a strike of this kind you will be sure to hear of one or two following." Yesterday Mr. Leggett's and has been missing since the wreck. prediction was partially fulfilled, when about 150 han is, all of them Knights of Labor, in the wrapping and machine department, struck work

The firm had received no intimation that their employes had any complaint against them, and could therefore assign no cause for the strike. The employes, however, stated that District Assembly No. 17, Knights of Labor, had formulated charges against the company, and later in the day a committee from the district waited upon Mr. Myers to Tiffin lodges will participate. talk over the matter with him and attempt to reach a settlement of the difficulty. Mr. Myers, however, refused to treat with any labor organization, or to re-employ any of the strikers except those who had been intimidated into stopping work.

The strikers say that the non-union men are being substituted for Knights of Labor, that men are being discharged to make in wages ranging from 25 to 35 per cent. About 1,100 hands are employed in the factory, and it is expected that, unless some agreement is arrived at between the company and the strikers, the whole force will be called out by the knights.

The Eight Hour Question.

tions of officers in the District Assembly No. 57, Knights of Labor. M. J. Butler, who, as master workman of the assembly last fail achieved unenviable notoriety in the part he played in the two big strikes, was put forward as the eight hour candidate, and he was re-elected by a large majority.

Considerable opposition to Butler had sprung up in the Town of Lake assemblies, and it was generally supposed that a majority of the delegates to the district assembly were hostile to him, hence his defeat was thought to be a foregone conclusion. His reelection is taken by his friends as an expression of symp by with the eight hour movement in the stock yards, and it is claimed that the old fight for shortened hours will be resumed early in the spring. A resolution declaring that the eight hour day i still attainable was passed by the full assembly and placed on file.

Eleven Hundred on a Strike.

MONTREAL, Jan. 19. - One of the largest strikes ever known in the province developed yesterday, when the employes of the Montreal rolling mills and the iron foundries of Messrs. Peck & Benny and Pillow & Hersey went out. The hands in the nail works connected with the mills were informed yesterday morning that wages would be reduced 10 per cent. After a short conference the hands decided to go out. The total number of persons involved in the strike is about 1,100, 1,000 of whom belong to the Knighte of Labor. Committees have been appointed to wait on the employers, but the prospect of a settlement are not very bright. N disturbance has taken place, nor is there likely to be any.

Troubles of Brewery Employes.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19. - Committee representing the striking brewery employeand their employers were in conference here. but adjourned indefinitely without coming to an understanding. The strikers, it is said demanded that all the strikers be taken back that those men employed since the strike begun be discharged, and that the old wage list and rules be again put into operation. This the employers' committee refused to listen to. It is probable that the knights will declare a boycott on beer manufactured by the Brewers' association.

Rolling Mills Employes Strike. MONTREAL, Jan. 19 .- The employes of the Montreal rolling mills and iron foundries of Messrs. Peck & Benny and Pillow & Hersey struck. There are about 1,800 men out, 1,000 of whom are Knights of Labor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19. - The legislature will be asked in a few days to grant a charter to a company to be known as the New York & Hudson River Aqueduct company. The company proposes to bring water to New York and Brooklyn from the Adirondacks, a distance of 225 miles, by means of a canal eighteen feet deep, running along the Hudson, with a capacity of 800,000,000 gallons a day. The cities along the Hudson will also be well supplied. The estimated cost is $60,-000,000. The only water works that compare in magnitude with this are those that supply Vienna. The Vienna aqueduct is 300 miles long, occupied six years in construction and cost $64,000,000.

THE REPUBLIC DISASTER.

Further Investigation By the Coroner Revised List of the Lost.

TIFFIN, O., Jan. 19.-Coroner Lepper continued his investigation into the Baltimore & Onio disaster, and established the fact that John S Gortner was one of the victims, several articles being found in the debris which were known to have been in his possession. The following list contains the names of the victims of whose identity there can be no doubt. It is not probable that the identity of others will be established: Joseph Postlethwaite, of West, W. Va.; Spencer Postlethwaite, of West, W. Va.; Harry Postlethwaite, of West, W. Va.; William of Washington, D. C.; Thomas Pemberton, of Payne, O.; Frank Irwin, of Black Hand, O.; James L. Francis, of Black Hand, O.; John S. Gortner, of Mechanicsburg, O.; John L. Beatty, of Goshen, Iowa, and several other persons are missing, but no proof has been adduced to show that they were on Michael J. McDonald is the name of the Michigan man supposed to be one of the victims. A letter from his father, Edward Mc-Donald, who resides at No. 97 West Enzibeth street, Detroit, Mich, says that Mr. Me-Donald has been making his home at . Baltimore, Md. December 31, he received money by postal order with which to pay his fare to Detroit, and since that time nothing has been heard of him. The father will go to Baltimore in a few days to investigate the case.

Seeing in the papers the name Black Hand, the name of the town in which live I the unfortunate lineman, Charles T. Hand, of Centerville, Md., writes Coroner Lepper that he fears his father must be the one meant. His father, W. J. Hand, a merchant of Centerviile, went to Battimore to purchase goods, Arrangements have been made with relatives of persons who perished in the wreck, and with the railroad company for the funeral services of the known and unknown dead who perished in the fatal smoking car. Advancing Rates on Bar Iron.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 19 .- A special meeting of the Western Iron association will be beld in this city on Wednesday next for the purpose of advancing the card rate on bar iron. As there will be a full representation from all over the country, and as many manufacturers are opposed to any advance, the displaces for girls at lower wages, and that the company contemplates a wholesale reduction stands at 2 cents a pound, to 2.10. The opponents of the advance stand on the argument that any advance now will result in the dumping of large quantities of foreign iron on the American market, while the advocates of the advance claim that the advance is justified by the advance in raw materials. The raising of the price, officials of the Amalgamated association state, is certain, eight hours at the stock yards are elated, it and will bring a correspondingly large adis stated, over the result of the annual election wages, which will come about in accordance with the scale agreement.

> The Will of Victoria Woodhull's Niece. NEW YORK, Jan. 19. -Surrogate Rollins has decided to admit to probate the will of Rosa V. Burns, which was offered for probate on August 30, 1883, and over which there has been a prolonged contest. She was the daughter of Mrs. Mary Sparr, sister of Victoria Woodhull and Jennie C. Claffin, and at her death owned property worth $40,-000, left her by her father, who had refused to live with her mother. Objections to the will were interposed by the mother, who was not named as legatee or devisee in it. The will gave all her property to Fernando de Francisco Martin, whom Miss Burns styled "my beloved friend, who has been a protector, guardian and father to me, and whose kindness and affection I desire to acknowledge." Among other things it was charged by Rosa's mother that Martin was the father of a child born to her daughter, which afterwards died.

An Ex-Treasurer Returns From Canada VINCENNES. Ind., Jan. 19 .- A sensation was spread about yesterday in the rumor that S. S. Hollingsworth, the defaulting county treasurer, was hiding about the city and would give himself up to-day and go to jail. His attorneys are very reticent about the matter, and declare that Hollingsworth's trial will come up on the 26th, and that he will be on hand. It will be remembered that Hollingsworth defaulted with nearly $78,-000 of the county funds, and that he has been in Canada ever since that event. His shortage was settled by his bondsmen at less than fifty cents on the dollar, and he proposes to stand the criminal trial.

Mysterious Assassination.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 19 .- Particulars of a mysterious murder in Prairie county, Sunday evening, has just reached here. Judge T. C. Iller, while returning from Devalls Bluffs to his home, was assassinated by unknown persons. He was shot twice in the body and his head was bruised with some blunt instrument in a frightful manner. The body was found some distance from the road side where it had been dragged. A sum of money was in the pockets of the dead man, showing that robbery had not been the motive for the crime. The neighborhood is greatly excited and arrests of suspected persons will be made.

Kept Out in the Country All Night. PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 19 .- All trains on

No person was injured, but passengers who expected to get into the city before midnight, were compelled to pass the night on the cars. The weather was extremely cold, but a plentiful supply of coal prevented any inconvenience from that JUDGE AYERS, of the Indianapolis Circuit Court, rules that the election of Robertson to the Lieutenant Governorship of that State was unconstitutional. The ruling leaves the Republicans feeling around to see just where they are. Miniature paintings on ivory, mounted in antique silver settings as brooches and cuff buttons, are a novelty that is having a great run.

Black woolen materials are much in favor, and are sometimes combined with silk or velvet. Black dresses have the collar smaller than other colors.

Men no longer wear diamond stude, but shirts are fastened with pearl buttons or pearl studs. A small, neat, plain gold stud may be used if desired, but as a rule little or no jewelry adorns the well-dressed man of today.

The materials used for gentlemen's full dress suits are fine worsted or best English broadcloth. Peaked lapels and shawl collar are both worn, silk to end of lapels on former. The edges are bound very narrow or corded. Roll low and

SAM JONES.

Characteristic Talk of the Great Evangelist Before a Boston Audience.

Boston, Jan. 19 .- A religious movement which has not had a parallel in popular in-terest here since the Moody revival has been initiated in Boston by the opening discourses of the Rev. Sam Jones, whose work has been attended with noteworthy results in the south and west. As his first appearance was at the Tremont Street Methodist Episcopal church, that edifice was thronged beyond precedent at the forenoon service by those who were drawn by the reputation of his unique personality and remarkable methods. From the pulpit steps to the outer door of the vestibule every space was occupied. The People's church in the evening was also densely

One of the most remarkable characteristics of the preaching was the constant oscillating between humor and gravity. At one moment Jones would lapse into his broadest elements of levity, and in the next would lift his sentiment and language into the highest religious expression. After a succession of these vibrations, the preacher, as if conscious that he had left some one in doubt whether to look finally to his serious or his humorous side, assured them in terms of marked earnestness that he was no mountebank or jester traveling over the land to make people laugh, but was one who loved the Lord with his whole heart, and was anxious before all THE Chicago Tribune spoke of an artithings to save souls to Christ by every means in his power.

In the course of his morning sermon he said: "I sometimes wonder why it is we fuse we men plead so much-and Boston has suffered perchance on this point-for my views and my doxy. I believe this is the stronghold of orthodoxy in America, and we get more heterodoxy from Boston than ANENT the contest for Governor, the any point in America. Our preachers frequently throw away much time on creed and doctrine and views. Here is an Episcopal preacher; the effort of his life is to establish apostolic succession, and he is showing his thought a thousand times how much wiser it would be if the poor fellow would just show than half of his crowd have never had anything to perserve on. Here is a Baptist preacher, ringing the changes on water, and perhaps a large proportion of his crowd going where they won't get a drop to cool their parched lips [laughter,] and there is a Methodist preacher ringing the changes on infant baptism. Brethren, baptize all the infants, and all the little infants in the town asleep and half the grown people going to hell."

Rio Wreck Case Begun.

PORTAGE, Wis., Jan. 19. -No case that has ever come up for trial in central Wisconsin has attracted such widespread interest as the one now on the docket in this city; namely the Rio wreck. The case is one that involves many fine points of law, and is out of the run of common court cases. A jury was sesorney read the indictment.

Silliness of Society People.

As remarked at the outset, this notion of location not only extends to certain streets but it covers particular places in the theatres. Last winter a young Boston scion of wealth and culture came to Philadelphia and was handsomely entertained for several weeks. Just before leaving he gave a theatre party. He chose a fashionable and entirely proper entertainment at the Academy of Music, the leading place of amusement in the is invitations and around his tickets. What was his surprise and chagrin to receive an almost unbroken stream of declinations. Some gave one excuse and some another, while not a few never deigned to answer his invitation, holding that he had done such an unpardonable thing that they were released from paying him longer any attention. Now, the unpardonable thing of which he was guilty consisted in securing his seats on the north side of the central aisle in the orchestra chairs, when society said the south side of the sisle was the fashionable side. This was positively the only thing amiss. Of the fifty invited only fifteen went, and they were as cold as fashionable icebergs. Of course the Bostonian discovered that something was wrong, but it was not until nearly all of even his fragment of a party had gone and purchased seats for themselves in other parts of the house that one of the ladies ventured to tell him what the difficulty was. - Cor. San Francisco Chronicle.

Suppressing the Bonnet Nuisance.

Though little is said in the papers now about Daniel Frohman's experiment in the direction of suppressing the bonnet nuisance at the Lyceum theatre, the good work is going on more bravely than many imagine. The first night of "A Scrap of Paper" saw the ladies' cloak room almost filled with wraps, bonnets and hats, and new lines of hooks have been put up and new checks stamped. Mr. Frohman said the other day: 'I am agreeably surprised at the result so far. The other day I received a request for a hundred seats in a block for the first night of Mr. Howard's new play. A check was in-closed for the amount and I accordingly sent the seats. So large an order struck me as being somewhat peculiar and I accordingly made inquiries. I found that a club had been formed up town whose members are pledged to the disuse of bonnet or hat inside a theatre. It was for this club that the tickets were wanted. This of course is encouraging, and my mail brings me nearly every day one or more letters bearing upon the subject. Most of them contain terms of strong approval of my attempt to procure by gentle suasion the downfall of the tall hat and bonnet in theatres."-New York Trib-

Combination Coat and Vest. Everytaxly who has to get into a dress coat knows the difficulty of preventing it from swinging away at the waist or collar, or slipping off the shoulders. These apparently irremediable lefects-irremediable because the coat cannot be buttoned-have, I find, been completely overcome by well known court tailors of Bedford street, Strand, by attaching the waistcoat to the coat in a very simple manner. Thus when the vest is buttoned the coat for all practical purposes is also buttoned. Moreover, the latter then clings to the figure as closely as a frock coat, and remains in the same position, imparting an appearance of smartness about the waist especially, which in a dress suit is really of the utmost importance to the wearer. I have no doubt that the dress coat and vest combined will be very popular during the present season. - London Figaro.

"The play's the thing, Wherein I'll reach the conscince of the king," And equally true is it that Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" (the original Little Liver Pills) are the most effectual means that can be used to reach the seat of disease, cleansing the bowels and system, and assisting nature in her recuperative work. Mr. D. A. Ellis, a cornetist of more than local fame, at the solicitation of friends, led the choir at the M. E. Church, South, union meeting, Maysville, Ky., a short time since. Eck is soon to be classed among the leading cornetists. The solus he rendered at the Christmas tree in this place were superb and were received with loud applause.

It has been whispered in our ear that several young men from this place who have been attending services at Bethlehem make a habit of disturbing the meetings with the sacriligious and ungentiemanly practice of talking, and other exhibitions of ill-breeding. As no particular names were mentioned, we can't expose them as we would like to, but we may get ou to their names in the near future, and there will be wool-pulling.

THE NEWS OF THE NATION.

SUMMARY OF THE IMPORTANT EVENTS AT WASHINGTON.

Secretary Bayard's Answer to the Inquiry on the Subject of Fishing Awards-New Civi: Service Rule-The Mrs. Logan Fund-Withholding Salaries-Notes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. -The Baltimore Sun publishes the following: "Secretary Bayard, in answer to an inquiry on the subject, said he did not see how any disclosures affecting the excessive fishery award which we paid to Great Britain, could bring any o the money back into the treasury. We had accepted the decision of the arbitrators, paid the money, and, so far as that was concerned, that was the end of it.

"He said this administration, of course, had no share or lot in that transaction. It was conducted entirely under a Republican administrasion, and there was no Democratio responsibility for it whatever. He had thought at the time as many others did, and he thought now, to the damages awarded and paid were very much in excess of what Canada was fairly and justly entitled, but, as he had said, there was no remedy for that. The negotiations concerning the exclusion of American fishermen from Canadian waters were still pending, and the department was certainly doing its utmost for the upholding and protection of American rights, but at the present stage he was not at liberty to make any statement as to the condition of the negotiations. Concerning the communication of Secretary Manning to congress, he said it would not be becoming for him to express any opinion, either in the way of commendation or condemnation.'

New Civil Service Rule.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 .- The president has approved a new rule for the improvement of the executive civil service, which authorizes the commissioners to appoint a number of boards of examiners, as follows: A central board of seven members, detailed from the department in which they are serving, to examine and mark the papers of all recommendations for the departmental, postal and customs service submitted to it by the commission; special boards to mark special examination papers for the classified service; supplementary boards to mark supplementary examinations; local departmental boards in the several states and territories, composed of persons in the public service resident therein, customs boards for each customs district, and postal boards for each classified postoffice. No person shall be appointed a member of any board of examiners until after consultation by the commission with the head of department in office, in which the person whom it desires to appoint is serving. All vacancies in the customs or postal boards shall be filled by nomination to the commission by the head of the office in which the vacancy occurs. Each examiner in the boards thus provided for is to be allowed time during office hours to perform the duties required of him; and all the boards shall be under the direct supervision of the commissioners,

Withholding Salaries. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 .- Something of a sensation was created to-day when Sergeantat-Arms Leedom received an order from Comptroller Durham, of the treasury, ordering him to withhold the salaries of Congressmen Curtin, of Pennsylvania, and Wade, of Missouri, alleging that they are indebted to the government on accounts not settled. In the case of Mr. Curtin he is charged with owing the government $944.83 on unsettled accounts while minister to Russia. Mr. Curtain claims that he does not owe one cent of the claim, and that this state of affairs is shown because of the poor system of keeping accounts at the treasury. Mr. Wade's case is similar and grows out of accounts relating to his position as lieutenant during the war. Whisperings About an Appointment. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—It is whispered about the capitol that the nomination of Charles W. Irish, of Iowa City, Iowa, who was designated during the recess of congress to be surveyor general of Nevada, vice Christopher C. Powning, suspended, is to be adversely reported on the ground that Home Rule should prevail, and a citizen of Nevada selected for the place.

The Mrs. Logan Fund.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.-The Mrs. Logan fund, which Capt. Lemon started, has run up to about $60,000. Besides this there were $13,000 contributed by citizens of Chicago, deposited in Rigg's bank in this city yesterday. Mrs. Logan paid off all the encumbrances on the Calumet Place property.

A Tragedy in a Church. WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., Jan. 19.—News has just reached here of a terrible shooting affray at Gum Lick Church, six miles east of this place, in which Constable M. Z. Crist was shot by Robert Dance, one of a party of toughs who were making a general discharge of musketry, so to speak, and who is a terror to the community. For quite a number of years the country surrounding Gum Lick has been the scene of numerous tragedies. Last night after church the people were startled by a continuous shooting, accompanied by yells of "Come on, Crist!" Crist, who is all grit, went and made one arrest and started off with the prisoner, when his brother, Dance, interrupted, and Crist attempted to arrest him also, when Dance drew his pistol, with the words, "Arrest h—l! I'll shoot you!" and attempted to fire in the officer's breast, when quite a struggle ensued, with the above result. They were surrounded by the gang who prevented any one from coming to Crist's assistance. A warrant was sworn out immediately for Dance's arrest, but he has not yet been found.

Grocery and Dwelling Burned. HILLSBORO, O., Jan. 19.—The grocery and dwelling-house of Elwood Ladd, at New Lexington, ten miles north of here, were destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday morning. Loss $4,200, insured in the H. D. Waddell agency for $2,600, as follows: Cooper, of Dayton, $1,000 on stock; German, of Freeport, Ill., $300 on store building; Amazon, of Cincinnati, $800 on dwelling. It is supposed that burglars were at work in the store, and in blowing the safe, set fire to the building. Savage's large brick storehouse had the galvanized iron cornice melted off, and several other buildings caught fire from the burning building, but were saved by the heroic efforts of the citizens.

A Cleveland Fire.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 19 -A four-story brick block at Nos. 14 and 16 Huron street, occupied by commission merchants and small manufactories, was badly damaged by fire yesterday evening.

A Novel Proposition From Gamblers to Church People.

SHARON, Pa., Jan. 19.—Great interest is created in sporting circles here by the apparently well authenticated report that the Young Men's Christian association has made over ares and covenants of a very novel character to the proprietors and patrons of the gambling dens of this city.

It appears that about a month ago a well organized movement was secretly directed against the law breakers, and with the assistance of spies the names of 105 patrons of the green table were secured. Among the latter were many young men who had been considered models of propriety. Just before the raids were to have been made on the dens the proprietors, it is alleged, secured a compromise by confidentially assuring the agitators that if antagonistic action was suspended and secrecy guaranteed one-half of the proceeds of the various games would be given to the Christian association. Sharon has a state reputation as a gambling resort.

Crushed to Death Under a Tree. XENIA, O., Jan. 19. -As several men in the employ of a Mr. Copenharen were cutting down trees to-day on the John Cooper farm, west of this city, a large tree that had been partly sawed, and then chopped on the other side, fell out of line and lodged in the other trees. While trying to dislodge the tree the butt end swung around and fell with a great crash on one of the choppers, Wesley Leahr, crushing the life out of him at once. Deceased was a brother-ip-law of Rev. G. W. H. Smith, of Lancaster, O., was thirty-three years of age, and leaves a wife and two small children, all in destitute circum-

Death of Colonel Asa H. Waters. WORCESTER, Mass., Jan. 19.-Col. Asa H. Waters, of Millbury, died this morning, aged eventy-nine years. He was a graduate of Yale in 1829, and received his military title on Governor Morton's staff in 1843. He was of the seventh generation from Richard Waters, who settled in Salem in 1632, a gunmaker, and the craft has been followed by every generation since. Col. Waters retired from the business at the close of the civil He leaves a widow and three daughters, one of whom is the wife of Professor E. A. Grosvenor, of Robert's college, Constantinople.

Lincoin's Trusted Messenger Ill.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 19.—Charles Heyser, who was carrier of private dispatches for Abraham Lincoln, and who held the president's head when he lay wounded in Ford's theatre, at Washington, is in the city in distressing circumstances. He is out of work and is ill of consumption. He has had an eventful career, having taken part in the Prusso-Austrian, the Franco-Prussian and Amerian civil wars.

A Missing Bookkeeper.

BALTIMORE, Ja .. 19 .- William Spurgeon, . U. bookkeeper for Hurst, Parnell & Co., dry goods merchants, who disappeared about Christmas, when he found that experts had been put on his books, is still missing. It has been found that within three years he made away with $20,000 of the firm's money. His whereabouts cannot be learned.

Fatally Hurt By Cars. WINCHESTER, O., Jan. 19 .- Wilson Murphy, claiming Columbus, O., as his home, was struck by a west-bound train and received internal injuries which the doctors say will prove fatal. His relatives were notified by telegraph, but no reply has yet been received.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Jan. 19.—Willie, a threeyear-old child of William Divine, of Bridgeton, was burned to a crisp. His clothing caught fire from a grate while his mother was out after a hod of coal.

Died of Paralysis.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 19. -- Surveyor General James A. Dawson died last night from the effects of a stroke of paralysis received last Thanksgiving.

"I want something to cure my cough. I have tried our doctor, and almost every proprietary medicine I ever heard of, but nothing seems to do me any good," a lady said to the clerk in a large drug-store.

"Gooch's Mexican Syrup gives the most general satisfaction of any thing we have ever sold, and is pronounced by some of our most prominent people to be the best remedy for coughs and lung troubles ever put upon the market. We sell more of it than all other cough remedies put together. You see our customers risk nothing in buying, as the proprietors authorize all druggists to guarantee it; so if this does not give you satisfaction, we will refund the money. It has made some remarkable cures." he replied, A WORD TO CONSUMPTIVES.

Consumptives, because all other things fail, believe not that Gooch's Mexican Syrup will. CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. Tuberculous matter is nothing more than nourishment imperfectly organized. Now, if we can procure the organization of this food material so that through the process of electric affinity it may take its place in the system, we can cure the disease. This is just what Gooch's Mexican Syrup does: It at once stops the progress of the disease by preventing the further supply of tuberculous matter, for while the system is under its influence all nourishment is organized and assimilated. It controls Coughs, Night-Sweats, and all other symptoms of consumption. GOOCH'S MEXICAN SYRUP HAS CURED THOUSANDS AND IT WILL CURE YOU. This remedy is pleasant to the taste, and may be given to children with perfect safety. It affords immediate relief.
